

8.3 Mines Teaching Award (Tenured or Tenure Track)

The purpose of the award is to recognize superior classroom instruction at either the undergraduate and/or graduate levels over a period of several years and to provide encouragement and incentive for classroom teaching achievement. Any tenured or tenured-track faculty member with significant experience teaching at Mines shall be eligible for nomination.

Nominations should be created with input from faculty members, students, alumni and others who are knowledgeable of the Mines' community and the criteria for the award. With the exception of the candidate CV, nomination letters should be no more than two pages in length, and must include the following components:

- a. A statement introducing the nominee and touching upon the nominee's overall merits,
- b. a statement of teaching and pedagogical activities, innovations, excellence and recognitions,
- c. a table of courses taught by the nominee over the past three years, and the candidate's CV.

The recommended format for the table referred to in item three above is provided below.

Academic Year: XXXX

Course Number	Percent Effort for Course	Course Title and Hours	Average Teaching Evaluation Score	Number of Students	Comments on Course Development and Innovations, Student Assessment, etc.
---------------	---------------------------	------------------------	-----------------------------------	--------------------	--

If requested by the Awards Committee, full dossiers for the candidate must include the following components:

- a. all nomination materials listed above,
- b. Department Head evaluations for the previous three years,
- c. letters of support from colleagues and students, and
- d. any other supplemental materials deemed relevant.

Each award consists of a plaque and $2,500 deposited into a faculty member's professional development account.
